

Kindred Connections

Peer Support for All Cancer Survivors
From diagnosis through treatment & beyond.

As a person going through cancer, you are encouraged to express feelings, fears and concerns, and ask questions on a personal and confidential level. Carefully selected and trained volunteers who have gone through similar experiences with cancer can offer a special kind of support.

How it Works

Trained Kindred Connections volunteers in your community are willing to talk to you. You may ask one of our professional partners at your medical facility, look for local announcements, or contact VCSN. A volunteer will then contact you. All information is strictly confidential.

For information about getting support or being a volunteer, contact Kindred Connections at 800-652-5064 or by email: info@vcsn.net
